Forward-looking Statements:

"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this release, including without limitation, USAT's anticipated commercial availability and costing of its new generation products, programs, and services, are forward-looking statements. When used in this release, words such as "anticipate", "believe", "estimate", "expect", "intend", and similar expressions, as they relate to USAT or its management, identify forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are based on the beliefs of USAT's management, as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to USAT's management. Actual results could differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including but not limited to, business, financial market and economic conditions; USAT's ability to accurately predict future market conditions, consumer behavior and levels of cashless usage, especially mobile payment, in the commercial self-serve laundry industry; the ability of USAT to obtain widespread commercial acceptance of its programs and services, including its loyalty programs, and programs such as mobile payment and mobile-based rewards; whether, and to what extent, loyalty programs and mobile-based rewards will result in increased sales; and the possibility that all of the expected benefits from adoption of cashless payment, loyalty programs and mobile-based rewards, will not be realized by all customers, or will not be realized within the expected time period. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statement made by us in this release speaks only as of the date of this release. Unless required by law, USAT does not undertake to release publicly any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
