

USA Technologies' Maeve McKenna Duska to Speak at NAMA's Coffee Tea and Water Show 2019

November 18, 2019

Will offer insights into convenience services trends shaping modern unattended and the self-serve retail landscape

MALVERN, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 18, 2019-- USA Technologies, Inc. (OTC: USAT) ("USAT"), a cashless payments and software services company that provides end-to-end technology solutions for the self-service retail market, announced today that Maeve McKenna Duska, Chief Marketing Officer of USAT will participate in the Trending Technologies in Convenience Services panel during the NAMA Coffee Tea & Water Show in Anaheim, California, from November 18-20, 2019.

Session details are as follows:

With more than 15 years of experience driving adoption and of payment and enterprise solutions in the unattended and self-serve retail industry in her role at USA Technologies, Maeve McKenna Duska will be participating on a panel of industry experts entitled "Trending in Convenience Services." The panel will discuss trending technologies across various unattended industry channels and offer insights into those which they perceive to be the most relevant applications for convenience services.

When: Monday, November 18 / 1:15 pm. - 2:15 pm

Where: Room Platinum 8

USAT will also be present on-site at Booth #1107 showcasing recent upgrades to its Seed Delivery software which enables office coffee delivery businesses to replace paper-based invoices with iPads, postage with email, and phone ordering with self-service Web ordering. The software can provide the opportunity for USAT customers to decrease operational costs by giving them the ability to, among other things, obtain orders from, and invoice, their customers, as well as track the status of outstanding invoices in a more efficient and competitive manner. Upgrades to the technology include enhanced billing tools and upgrades to its bulk management of delivery operations through a Seed Delivery Import Wizard. For more information click here.
