USA Technologies, Inc. Set to Join Russell Microcap Index

MALVERN, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- USA Technologies, Inc. (NASDAQ: USAT), a leader in wireless, cashless transactions, associated financial/network services and energy management, is set to join the Russell Microcap® Index when Russell Investments reconstitutes its family of U.S. indexes on June 24, 2011, according to a preliminary list of additions posted June 10, 2011 on www.russell.com/indexes.

Membership in the Russell Microcap Index remains in place for one year. The Russell Microcap Index measures the performance of the microcap segment of the U.S. Equity Market. Russell determines membership for its U.S. equity indexes by objective rules, such as market-capitalization rankings.

George Jensen, CEO of USA Technologies, Inc., commented, "Inclusion in the Russell Microcap Index is an important event for USA Technologies, and we believe exposes our stock to a wide audience of investment managers."

Russell Indexes are widely used as benchmarks for both passive and active investment strategies, and $3.9 trillion in investment assets are currently benchmarked to them.

The Russell Indexes originated in the early 1980s from Russell's insights about investment management behavior, and were designed to produce indexes that objectively track performance and better reflect investment management behavior.
