

CHARTER OF THE AUDIT AND RISK COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF CANTALOUPE, INC.

I. Purpose

In accordance with and pursuant to this charter (the “Charter”), the Audit and Risk Committee (the “Committee”) is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Cantaloupe, Inc. (the “Company”) to assist the Board in:

1. monitoring (a) the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, (b) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, (c) the performance of the Company's internal audit function, if any, and independent auditors, and (d) the compliance by the Company with applicable legal and regulatory requirements; and
2. overseeing the Company's compliance and ethics programs, policies and procedures.

The Committee shall prepare the report (the “Audit Committee Report”) required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

II. Committee Membership Composition

A. The Committee shall be comprised of three or more Directors (as determined from time to time by the Board), each of whom shall meet the independence requirements of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) and Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”). No member of the Committee shall have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Company in the past three years. Each member of the Committee shall have the ability to understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement. In addition, at least one member of the Committee shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer, or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities. At least one member of the Committee shall be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by the Commission in Item 407(d)(5) of Regulation S-K.

B. Committee members may not simultaneously serve on the audit committees of more than two other public companies.

C. The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board and may be replaced by the Board. Unless a chairperson is elected by the Board, the members of the Committee may designate a chairperson by majority vote of the full Committee membership (the “Chair”). In the event the Chair is unable to serve as Chair for a specific meeting, he or she shall designate one of the other Committee members to preside.

III. Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines, but not less frequently than quarterly and each time the Company proposes to issue an earnings press release. The Committee shall hold meetings at such times and at such places as it shall deem necessary. Without limitation of the foregoing, the Committee may hold such meetings telephonically or by video conference and may act by written consent in lieu of a meeting to the extent permitted by the rules of Nasdaq, the Company's governing documents, and applicable law. The Committee shall meet periodically with management, any third-party accounting or finance consultant or professional, and the independent auditor in separate executive sessions and have such other direct and independent interaction with such persons from time to time as the members of the Committee deem appropriate. The Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company, any third-party accounting or finance consultant or professional, or the Company's outside counsel or independent auditor to attend a meeting of the Committee or to meet with any members of, or consultants to, the Committee. At the discretion of the Chair, any director who is not a Committee member may attend Committee meetings as a guest. Written minutes of Committee meetings shall be maintained.

The Committee may elect to meet from time to time in executive session at its discretion. The operation of the Committee will be subject to the provisions of the Bylaws of the Company, the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, the rules and regulations of the Commission and the listing standards of Nasdaq, each as in effect from time to time. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

IV. Authority and Resources

The Committee shall have:

1. The sole authority to appoint, retain or replace the independent auditor (subject, if applicable, to shareholder ratification). The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the independent auditor (including resolution of disagreements between management and the independent auditor regarding financial reporting) and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attestation services for the Company. The independent auditor and each such registered public accounting firm shall report directly to the Committee.
2. The authority to pre-approve all auditing services and permitted non-audit services (including the fees and terms thereof) to be performed for the Company by its independent auditor, subject to the de minimis exceptions for non-audit services described in Section 10A(i)(1)(B) of the Exchange Act and Commission rules thereunder which are approved by the Committee prior to the completion of the audit.
3. The authority to form and delegate authority to subcommittees consisting of one or more members when appropriate, including the authority to grant pre-approvals of audit and permitted non-audit services, provided that decisions of such subcommittee to grant preapprovals shall be presented promptly to the full Committee (no later than at its next scheduled meeting).

4. The authority to retain independent legal, accounting or other advisors. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to the independent auditor for the purpose of rendering or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attestation services for the Company and to any advisors employed by the Committee, as well as funding for the payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board. The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval. The Committee shall annually review the Committee's own performance.

V. Responsibilities and Duties

The Committee, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, shall:

Financial Statement and Disclosure Matters

1. Review and discuss with management and the independent auditor the Company's annual audited financial statements, including disclosures made in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" ("MD&A"), and recommend to the Board whether the audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.
2. Review and discuss with management and the independent auditor the Company's quarterly financial statements prior to the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, including the results of the independent auditor's review of the quarterly financial statements and the disclosures made in MD&A.
3. Discuss with management, the internal auditors and the independent auditor significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, any major issues as to the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal controls and any special steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies and the adequacy of disclosures regarding changes in internal control over financial reporting.
4. Review and discuss reports from the independent auditors on:
 - a. All critical accounting estimates and related policies and practices to be used and all critical audit matters identified.
 - b. All alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed by the independent auditors with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor.

- c. Other material written communications between the independent auditor and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.
5. Discuss with management the Company's earnings press releases and the overall quality of the Company's reported earnings, including the use in press releases or presentations of any "pro forma," "adjusted" or other non-GAAP information, as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts, investors or rating agencies. Such discussion may be done generally (consisting of discussing the types of information to be disclosed and the types of presentations to be made).
6. Discuss with management and the independent auditor the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives as well as any off-balance sheet structures or entities on the Company's financial statements.
7. Discuss with management the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures.
8. Discuss with the independent auditor the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 114 relating to the conduct of the audit, including any difficulties encountered in the course of the audit work, any restrictions on the scope of activities or access to requested information, and any significant disagreements with management.
9. Review disclosures made to the Committee by the Company's CEO and CFO during their certification process for the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q about any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information and any fraud involving management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
10. Produce the Audit Committee Report for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement.

Oversight of the Company's Relationship with the Independent Auditor

11. Obtain and review a report from the independent auditor at least annually regarding (a) the independent auditors internal quality-control procedures, (b) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and (c) any steps taken to deal with any such issues.
12. Ensure receipt at least annually from the independent auditor of a formal written statement delineating all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company, consistent with applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board regarding the independent auditor's communications with the Committee concerning independence, actively engage in a dialogue with the auditor about any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the auditor, and take appropriate action to oversee the independence of the independent auditor.

13. Evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditor, including considering whether the auditor's quality controls are adequate and the provision of permitted non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the auditor's independence, and taking into account the opinions of management. Such evaluation should include the review and evaluation of the lead partner of the independent auditor team. The Committee shall present its conclusions with respect to the independent auditor to the Board.
14. Monitor compliance by the independent auditor with the audit partner rotation requirements contained in the Commission's rules. Consider whether, in order to assure continuing auditor independence, it is appropriate to adopt a policy of rotating the independent auditing firm on a regular basis.
15. Establish policies and monitor compliance for the Company's hiring of employees or former employees of the independent auditor.
16. Discuss with the independent auditor any matters on which they consulted their national office.
17. Meet with the independent auditor prior to the audit to discuss the planning and staffing of the audit.
18. Review and approve in advance any services provided by the independent auditors to the Company's executive officers or members of their immediate family.

Compliance and Ethics Oversight Responsibilities

19. Obtain from the independent auditor assurance that Section 10A(b) of the Exchange Act has not been implicated. This section requires the independent auditor, if it detects or becomes aware of any illegal act, to assure that the Committee is adequately informed and to provide a report if the independent auditor has reached specified conclusions with respect to such illegal acts.
20. Obtain reports from management and the independent auditor that the Company is in conformity with applicable legal requirements relating to financial reporting, internal controls over financial reporting and other matters referred to in this Charter.
21. Review reports and disclosures of insider and affiliated party transactions. Review and approve all related-party transactions, defined by, or those transactions required to be disclosed under, Item 404 of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933.
22. Establish procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

23. Discuss with management and the independent auditor any correspondence with regulators or governmental agencies and any published reports which raise material issues regarding the Company's financial statements or accounting policies.
24. Discuss with the Company's Chief Legal Officer legal matters that may have a material impact on the financial statements, financial reporting, internal controls over financial reporting, or accounting policies of the Company.
25. Review with management the policies and procedures with respect to officers' expense accounts and perquisites, including their use of corporate assets, and consider the results of any review of these areas by the independent auditors.
26. Oversee the development and implementation of the Company's compliance programs, policies and procedures (including the Company's compliance with governing rules, regulations and operating requirements of critical partners, such as payment networks and processors), and the adequacy of the resources of the compliance programs
27. Approve, monitor and review periodically the procedures that management has established to implement the Company's ethics and compliance policies and programs.
28. Oversee the development and implementation of employee communication and training on ethics and compliance issues and programs.
29. Meet regularly with the Company's Chief Compliance Officer (who shall report directly to the Board to ensure independent oversight), or persons holding equivalent positions, to discuss matters within the Committee's oversight responsibilities. Upon request of the Chair, the Chief Compliance Officer will meet in executive session with the Committee or with the Board, as the case may be.
30. Periodically evaluate new developments and current and emerging trends in regulation, legislation, public policy, compliance and enforcement that may affect the Company and meet regularly with the Company's Chief Compliance Officer to adopt best practices.
31. Periodically review and recommend to the Board any changes to the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and any materials related to the Company's compliance and ethics programs.
32. At its discretion, oversee the investigation of, or request the investigation of, any matters within the scope of the Committee's responsibilities, including potential compliance violations that are reported to the Committee.

33. Perform such other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned to the Committee from time to time by the Board and/or the Chairperson of the Board.

Oversight of Internal Audit Function

34. Oversee the Company's internal audit function, including reviewing and approving the proposed internal audit plan, reviewing significant changes to and results of the internal audit plan, reviewing the internal audit budget and staffing, and appointing, compensating and replacing the Company's Vice President of Internal Audit.
35. Review and approve (at least annually) the internal audit department's charter.
36. Meet periodically with the Company's Vice President of Internal Audit to review and evaluate the Company's internal audit function.

Risk Oversight Responsibilities

37. Oversee the Company's enterprise risk program, in conjunction with other committees of the Board with risk oversight responsibilities, including determining the adequacy and appropriateness thereof, including the ongoing alignment of the Company's strategic plans with its risk appetite.
38. Review and discuss with management, on a periodic basis, the Company's practices with respect to risk identification, assessment, monitoring and risk management and mitigation, with an emphasis on significant business risks of the Company, including operational, compliance, physical security, legal and other key business risks, except as to those risks for which oversight has been assigned to other committees of the Board or retained by the Board.
39. Receive and review reports from management of selected risk topics, including reports on the nature and magnitude of significant risks and opportunities, any emerging risks or negative trends, any material changes to risk management activities, and any exceptions to the Company's established policies or limits for key risks.
40. Discuss with the independent auditor the Company's risk assessment and risk management guidelines, policies and processes.
41. Review with management and members of the internal auditor, if any, any regulatory developments that could impact the Company's risk identification, assessment, monitoring and risk management and mitigation.

VI. Limitation of Committee's Role

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of management and the independent auditor.

Similarly, while the Committee has compliance oversight responsibilities, it is management's responsibility to design and implement and to seek approval from the Committee for the compliance and ethics policies and practices at the Company and to design the risk management systems and related policies and procedures. Nothing in this Charter shall expand the duties or liabilities of any member of the Committee beyond any duties and liabilities otherwise imposed by law.

Date: November 4, 2024